Third Monday Book Club Monday, April 15 | 12 p.m. | Conference Room

The April selection is The Greatest Beer Run Ever by John "Chickie" Donohue and Joanna Molloy. It tells about a group of men in 1967 who were reflecting on the family and friends serving in Vietnam. Someone proposed that one of the group should sneak into Vietnam, track down their buddies and deliver a bear hug, a beer and encouragement. John "Chick" Donohue, a U.S. Marine Corps veteran volunteered to make the "greatest beer run ever" and embarked on a journey that would change his life forever. Join us on Monday, and plan to join us next month! Our May selection is One Thousand White Women: The Journals of May Dodd.

Come enjoy breakfast, fellowship, and a short devotional with other men from the church for the last Sharpen Up of the semester, and invite a friend or coworker! This spring, our devotional theme is "Redeeming the Time"—thinking about how we can honor and glorify the Lord in the time he's given and what it means for us. We are excited to have our Senior Pastor, Dr. Splawn, lead our devotional time this month! See you there!

Foundation Moments: Hoyt Wilson

Our congregation continues to mourn the loss of Hoyt Wilson. He loved our congregation, and he was a positive influence on our membership and culture for approximately sixty years. His presence, experience, and wisdom are sorely missed by all of us who knew him well, but more so by Janet and his family for whom we continue to pray for God to grant them his comfort and blessings.

Arab Center for Cultural Training & Service

THE MIDDLE EAST

Mission Partner of the Week

Ruba Abbassi works with the Arab Center for Consulting and Training Services (ACCTS) as the head of Arab Women Today (AWT). ACCTS exists to see the Arab community live in peace and harmony with one another and to empower individuals to live in freedom. The center provides moral and material support to those most affected by crises in the Middle East by providing a safe place to dialogue and encourage others, education and training opportunities, and resources to help them flourish in their environment.

Prayer Requests:

- Pray for the protection and safety of Ruba and her husband Nabeeh as they continue to do ministry in difficult circumstances.
- Pray for the young adults that went through the evangelism training that they might confidently and wholeheartedly share the gospel of Jesus with those they encounter.
- Pray for women receiving counseling, many of whom have experienced sexual abuse and marital difficulties. Pray also for the counselors ministering to them in the days ahead.
